(4) In ascertaining the chargeable income of a person who is required under sub-section (3) to render a balancing statement to the Commissioner a deduction (hereinafter referred to as a "balancing deduction") shall be allowed or, as the case may be, an addition (hereinafter referred to as a "balancing addition") shall be made and such balancing deduction or balancing addition shall be calculated by reference to the balancing statement or statements rendered by the person in respect of the year immediately preceding the year of assessment as follows —

- (a) the amount of a balancing deduction shall be the amount by which the amount of item (i) of the balancing statement exceeds the sum of the amounts of item (ii) and item (iii) of that statement ; or
- (b) the amount of the balancing addition shall be the amount by which the sum of the amounts of item (ii) and item (iii) of the balancing statement exceeds the amount of item (i) of that statement :

Provided that in no case shall the balancing addition exceed the aggregate amount of any deduction previously allowed under the provisions of this section and included in item (ii) of the balancing statement.

(5) Where property, in the case of which any of the events mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b) of sub-section (3) has occurred, is replaced by the owner thereof and a balancing addition falls to be made by reason thereof, then, if by notice in writing to the Commissioner he so elects, the following provisions shall have effect, that is to say—

- (a) if the amount of the balancing addition which would have been made is greater than the capital expenditure on providing the new property—

- (i) the balancing addition shall be an amount equal to the difference ; and
- (ii) no balancing deduction under sub-section (4) and no deduction under paragraph (a) of sub-section (2) shall be allowed in respect of such new property ; and in considering whether any balancing addition falls to be made in respect of the capital expenditure on providing such new property the aggregate amount of all deductions previously allowed in respect of such property under the provisions of this section, excluding in the case of property acquired on or after the 1st day of January, 1954, deductions allowed under paragraphs (b) and (c) of sub-section (2), shall be deemed to be equal to the full amount of such expenditure ; and

- (b) if the capital expenditure on providing the new property is equal to or greater than the amount of the balancing addition that would have been made—
 - (i) the balancing addition shall not be made ; and
 - (ii) the amount of any deductions under the provisions of this section other than deductions under paragraphs (b) and (c) of sub-section (2) shall be calculated as if the capital expenditure on providing such new property had been reduced by the amount of the balancing addition ; and in considering whether any balancing deduction or balancing addition falls to be made in respect of such new property, the aggregate amount of all deductions previously allowed in respect of such property under the provisions of this section, excluding in the case of property acquired on or after the 1st day of January, 1954, deductions allowed under sub-paragraphs (b) and (c) of sub-section (2), shall be deemed to have been increased by an amount equal to the amount of the balancing addition that would have been made.

(6) Where a person has delivered a balancing statement, the Commissioner may—

- (a) accept the statement and make a balancing deduction or addition accordingly ; or
- (b) refuse to accept the statement and, to the best of his judgment, determine the amount of the balancing deduction or addition and make a balancing deduction or addition accordingly.

- (a) the capital expenditure on providing any property shall be the amount which in the opinion of the Commissioner such property would have cost if brought in the open market at the time it was provided ;

- (c) where there is no sale, insurance, salvage or compensation in respect of any property the amount deemed to be receivable as such in respect of such property, shall be the amount which in the opinion of the Commissioner such property would have realised if sold in the open market at the time of the event.

(8) Where any property has been sold and either—

- (a) the buyer is a person over whom the seller has control or the seller is a person over whom the buyer has control or both the seller and the buyer are persons over whom some other person has control ; or
- (b) it appears with respect to the sale or with respect to transactions of which the sale is one that the sole or main benefit which might have been expected to accrue to the parties or any of them was the obtaining of a deduction under this section, then, notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this section, the Commissioner may refuse to allow any deductions under this section in respect of such property.

(9) Where the income is derived from carrying on a trade of mining there shall be allowed, in lieu of any allowances or deductions under the foregoing sub-sections such allowances or deductions as are specified in the First Schedule to this Law.

(3) Where a person has not delivered a return and the Commissioner is of the opinion that such person is liable to pay tax, he may, according to the best of his judgment, determine the amount of the chargeable income of such person and assess him accordingly :

Provided that such assessment shall not affect any liability otherwise incurred by such person by reason of his refusal, failure or neglect to deliver a return.

Objections to assessments.

42.—(1) If any person disputes an assessment he may apply to the Commissioner, by notice of objection in writing, to review and to revise the assessment made upon him. Such application shall state precisely the grounds of his objections to the assessment and shall be made within fifteen days from the date of the service of the notice of assessment :

Provided that the Commissioner, upon being satisfied that owing to absence from the Colony, sickness or other reasonable cause, the person disputing the assessment was prevented from making the application within such period, shall extend the period as may be reasonable in the circumstances.

(2) The grounds of objections to an assessment under the provisions of sub-section (1) may, unless the contrary intention is expressly stated in this Law, include any alleged wrongful exercise in the making of such assessment of any discretionary power conferred on the Commissioner or other person appointed by the Governor for the administration of this Law.

(3) On receipt of a notice of objection referred to in sub-section (1) the Commissioner may require the person giving the notice of objection to furnish such particulars as the Commissioner may deem necessary with respect to the income of the person assessed and to produce all accounts, books or other documents in his custody or under his control relating to such income and may summon such person or any other person, not being the clerk, agent, servant or other person confidentially employed in the affairs of the person to be charged, who he believes is able to give evidence respecting the assessment to attend before him and may examine any such person on oath or otherwise :

43.—(1) Any person who, being aggrieved by an assessment made upon him, has failed to agree with the Commissioner in the manner provided in sub-section (4) of section 42, may appeal against the assessment to the Court upon giving notice in writing to the Commissioner within fifteen days from the date of the refusal of the Commissioner to amend the assessment as desired :

Appeals against assessment.

(2) Except by leave of the Court, the appellant shall not, in his notice of appeal, state, or at the hearing be allowed to rely upon, any ground of appeal not specifically set out in the notice of objection given under the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 42.

(3) Every person appealing shall attend before the Court in person on the day and at the time fixed for the hearing of his appeal :

Provided always that if it be proved to the satisfaction of the Court that owing to absence from the Colony, sickness or other reasonable cause any person is prevented from attending in person at the hearing of his appeal on the day and at the time fixed for that purpose, the Court may postpone the hearing of the appeal for such reasonable time as it thinks necessary for the attendance of the appellant or it may admit the appeal to be made by an agent, clerk or servant of the appellant on his behalf.

(4) Seven clear days notice shall, unless rules made under sub-section (12) otherwise provide, be given to the Commissioner of the date fixed for the hearing of the appeal.

(5) The onus of proving that the assessment complained of is excessive shall be on the appellant.

(6) If the Court is satisfied that the appellant is overcharged it may reduce the amount of the assessment by the amount of the overcharge and if it is satisfied that the appellant is undercharged it may increase the amount of the assessment by the amount of the undercharge.

(7) Notice of the amount of tax payable under the assessment as determined by the Court shall be served by the Commissioner upon the appellant.

(8) All appeals shall be heard in camera unless the Court on the application of the appellant shall otherwise direct.

(9) The costs of the appeal shall be in the discretion of the Court hearing the appeal and shall be a sum fixed by the Court.

(10) The decision of the Court hearing the appeal shall be final :

Provided that the Court hearing such appeal may and on the application of the appellant or the Commissioner shall, state a case on a question of law for the opinion of the Supreme Court and such case stated shall be heard and determined, by way of appeal, by the Supreme Court.

(11) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 57, if the Court is satisfied that tax in accordance with its decision upon the appeal may not be recovered, the Court may require the appellant forthwith to furnish such security for payment of any tax which may become payable by the appellant as may seem to the Court to be proper and if such security is not given the tax assessed shall become payable forthwith and shall be recoverable as provided in section 59.

(12) The Chief Justice may make rules appointing places for the hearing of appeals under this section, the procedure to be followed including the procedure to be followed on a case being stated and the fees to be paid.

(2) An assessment shall not be impeached or affected—

(a) by reason of a mistake therein as to the name or surname of a person liable, the description of any income or the amount of tax charged ; or

(b) by reason of any variance between the assessment and the notice thereof :

45. Where it appears to the Commissioner that any person liable to tax has not been assessed or has been assessed at a less amount than that which ought to have been charged, the Commissioner may, within the year of assessment or within six years after the expiration thereof, assess such person at such amount or additional amount as according to his judgment ought to have been charged and the provisions of this Law shall apply to such assessments and to the tax charged thereunder.

(2) Every claim for repayment under this section shall be made within six years from the end of the year of assessment to which the claim relates and if admitted the Commissioner shall give a certificate of the amount to be repaid and upon the receipt of the certificate the Accountant-General shall cause repayment to be made in conformity therewith.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-section (1) the Commissioner may refuse to make any repayment to any person in respect of any year during which such person has been convicted of an offence against this Law or during which any such offence committed by such person has been compounded under the provisions of section 72.

(4) Where any person is entitled to a repayment under the provisions of this section and authorizes, by a duly certified notice in writing addressed to the Commissioner, some other person to receive such repayment on his behalf, such notice shall be exempt from any stamp duty payable under any Law in force for the time being relating to stamp duties.

PART X

RELIEF IN CASE OF DOUBLE TAXATION

47.—(1) Any person who has paid tax by deduction or otherwise, or is liable to pay tax for any year of assessment on any part of his income and who proves to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that he has paid, by deduction or otherwise, or is liable to pay, United Kingdom tax for that year in respect of the same part of his income, shall be entitled to relief from tax paid or payable by him on that part of his income at a rate equal to the amount by which the rate of tax appropriate to his case under this Law exceeds half the appropriate rate of United Kingdom tax :

Relief in respect of United Kingdom tax.

Provided that if the rate of tax appropriate to his case under this Law exceeds the appropriate rate of United Kingdom tax he shall be entitled only to relief at a rate equal to half the appropriate rate of United Kingdom tax ; and

Provided further that where in the case of any person, but for this proviso, the amount of tax payable under this Law after allowance of any relief as aforesaid when added to the amount of income tax payable in the United Kingdom in respect of the same part of his income after allowance of such relief as is granted by section 27 of the Finance Act, 1920 (which amount is hereinafter referred to as "the net United Kingdom Tax") would exceed the greater of the amounts of tax which, but for the reliefs aforesaid, would be payable under this Law and in the United Kingdom respectively (which amounts are hereinafter referred to respectively as "the gross Cyprus tax" and "the gross United Kingdom tax"), the Commissioner, may, if he is satisfied that special hardship would otherwise be caused, grant such additional relief from the tax payable under this Law as he may think fit up to an amount sufficient to reduce the net tax so payable to an amount which, when added to the net United Kingdom tax, will be equivalent to the gross Cyprus tax or the gross United Kingdom tax, whichever is the greater.

(2) For the purposes of this section a certificate issued by or on behalf of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue in the United Kingdom shall be receivable as evidence of the appropriate rate of United Kingdom tax or the net United Kingdom tax in any particular case.

(3) For the purposes of this section the expression "rate of tax" when applied to tax paid or payable under this Law means the rate determined by dividing the amount of the tax paid or payable for the year (before the deduction of any relief granted under this section) by the amount of the income in respect of which the tax paid or payable under this Law has been charged for that year, except that where the income which is the subject of a claim to relief under this section is computed by reference to the provisions of section 27 of this Law on an amount other than the ascertained amount of the actual profits, the rate of tax shall be determined by the Commissioner.

respect of Commonwealth tax.

48.—(1) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (3) if any person resident in the Colony, who has paid tax by deduction or otherwise or is liable to pay tax for any year of assessment on any part of his income, proves to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that he has paid, by deduction or otherwise, or is liable to pay, Commonwealth tax for that year in respect of the same part of his income, he shall be entitled to relief from tax paid or payable by him on that part of his income at a rate thereon to be determined as follows :

- (a) if the rate of Commonwealth tax does not exceed one-half of the rate of tax appropriate to his case under this Law the rate at which relief is to be given shall be the rate of Commonwealth tax ; and
- (b) in any other case the rate at which relief is to be given shall be half the rate of tax appropriate to his case under this Law.

(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (3) if any person not resident in the Colony who has paid tax by deduction or otherwise or is liable to pay tax for any year of assessment on any part of his income, proves to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that he has paid, by deduction or otherwise, or is liable to pay Commonwealth tax for that year of assessment in respect of the same part of his income, he shall be entitled to relief from tax paid or payable by him under this Law on that part of his income at a rate thereon to be determined as follows :

- (a) if the rate of Commonwealth tax appropriate to his case does not exceed the rate of tax appropriate to his case under this Law, the rate at which relief is to be given shall be one-half of the rate of Commonwealth tax ; and
- (b) if the rate of Commonwealth tax appropriate to his case exceeds the rate of tax appropriate to his case under this Law, the rate at which relief is to be given shall be equal to the amount by which the rate of tax appropriate to his case under this Law exceeds one-half of the rate of Commonwealth tax.

(4) For the purposes of this section, the rate of tax under this Law shall be computed in the manner provided by sub-section (3) of section 47 and the rate of Commonwealth tax shall be computed in a similar manner.

(5) Where a person is, for any year of assessment, resident both in the Colony and in a place in which Commonwealth tax is charged, he shall, for the purposes of this section be deemed to be resident where, during that year, he resides for the longer period.

49. A claim for relief under section 47 or section 48 shall be made within two years from the end of the year of assessment to which it relates :

Provided that such a claim, though not made within the said period of two years, shall be admitted if made within six years from the end of the said year of assessment and within six months from the date upon which the relevant amount of United Kingdom tax or Commonwealth tax, as the case may be, has been ascertained.

(4) Any Order made under this section may be revoked by a subsequent Order.

(5) Where any arrangements have effect by virtue of this section the obligation as to secrecy imposed by section 4 shall not prevent the disclosure to any authorized officer of the Government with which the arrangements are made of such information as is required to be disclosed under the arrangements.

(2) The amount of the tax chargeable in respect of the income shall be reduced by the amount of the credit :

Provided that credit shall not be allowed against tax for any year of assessment unless the person entitled to the income is resident in the Colony for that year.

(3) The credit shall not exceed the amount which would be produced by computing the amount of the income in accordance with the provisions of this Law and then charging it to tax at a rate ascertained by dividing the tax chargeable (before allowance of credit under any arrangements having effect under section 50 of this Law) on the total income of the person entitled to the income by the amount of his total income.

(4) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (3) the total credit to be allowed to a person for any year of assessment for foreign tax under all arrangements having effect under section 50 shall not exceed the total tax payable by him for that year of assessment.

(5) In computing the amount of the income—

(a) no deduction shall be allowed in respect of foreign tax whether in respect of the same or any other income ;

(b) where the tax chargeable depends on the amount received in the Colony, the said amount shall be increased by the appropriate amount of the foreign tax in respect of the income ;

(c) where the income includes a dividend and under the arrangements foreign tax not chargeable directly or by deduction in respect of the dividend is to be taken into account in considering whether any credit is to be given against tax in respect of the dividend, the amount of the income shall be increased by the amount of the foreign tax not so chargeable which falls to be taken into account in computing the amount of the credit :

Provided that notwithstanding anything in the preceding provisions of this sub-section a deduction shall be allowed of any amount by which the foreign tax in respect of the income exceeds the credit therefor.

(6) Paragraphs (a) and (b) of sub-section (5) shall apply to the computation of total income for the purposes of determining the rate mentioned in sub-section (3) and shall apply thereto in relation to all income in the case of which credit falls to be given for foreign tax under arrangements for the time being in force under section 50.

(Section 11 (9))

ALLOWANCES IN RESPECT OF MINING OPERATIONS

Interpretation.

1.—(1) In this Schedule, unless the context otherwise requires—

“balance of expenditure” at any date in respect of any asset or assets means the sum of any expenditure incurred by a person carrying on a trade of mining in respect of such asset or assets on or after the 1st day of January, 1946, plus any previous expenditure in respect of such asset or assets determined in accordance with the provisions of this Schedule from which has been deducted the following :—

- (a) any initial allowance in respect of such expenditure made under the provisions of this Schedule ;
- (b) any annual allowance in respect of such expenditure or previous expenditure made under the provisions of this Schedule ;
- (c) the amount of any sale, insurance, salvage or compensation moneys received or receivable in respect of any asset or assets or any part thereof which were sold, demolished or destroyed prior to such date and after the 1st day of January, 1946 ;

“expenditure” means capital expenditure in connection with a source of mineral deposits incurred by any person carrying on a trade of mining—

- (a) on searching for or on discovering and testing mineral deposits or winning access thereto or on development, and on general administration and management prior to the commencement of production ;
- (b) on the provision of plant and machinery including any premium or consideration in the nature of a premium paid for the use of such plant and machinery ;
- (c) on the construction of any buildings, structures or works, from which has been deducted the net proceeds of sale of any minerals extracted prior to the commencement of production :

Provided that the said expression shall include—

- (ii) any expenditure on the acquisition of, or of rights in or over, the deposits :

Provided also that the said expression shall not include—

- (i) any expenditure on works constructed wholly or mainly for subjecting the raw product of the source to any process, except a process designed for preparing the raw product for use as such ;
- (ii) any expenditure on searching for or on discovering or testing the mineral deposits of any source or winning access thereto in cases where the search, exploration or inquiry is given up without there having been carried out any trade which consists of or includes the working of the source in question, such expenditure to be allowed as a deduction from the chargeable income in the year of assessment immediately following that in which the search, exploration or inquiry, is given up.

“ the Law ” means the Income Tax Law, 1958 ;

“ minerals ” means any substances or materials of economic value of a wasting nature forming part of, or derived naturally from, the crust of the earth and obtained mainly by underground excavations ;

“ mining ” means the winning of minerals ;

“ source ” or “ source of mineral deposits ” at any date means, subject to the provisions of sub-paragraphs (2) and (3), the total mineral deposits in or upon any land from which the person carrying on the trade had, at that date, any right to lift or extract such mineral deposits or any title to acquire such right being land in the same mineral field.

(2) Where separate and distinct mining operations are carried on in mines that are not contiguous and the person carrying on the trade gives notice in writing to the Commissioner within twelve months of being granted a mining lease giving the right to extract minerals from the area of such mine that he wishes the mineral deposits appertaining to each such separate mine to be treated as constituting a separate source then they shall be deemed to be separate sources for all the purposes of the Law for all years of assessment.

(3) Any references in this Schedule to assets representing any expenditure includes, in relation to expenditure on searching for, discovering and testing deposits, any results obtained from any search, exploration or inquiry upon which the expenditure was incurred.

2. Any person carrying on a trade of mining who claims allowances under this Schedule shall, within the year of assessment, render to the Commissioner, at the same time as he renders his return of income under section 34 of the Law an estimate of the economically payable ore reserves of the source as at the 31st day of December immediately preceding such year of assessment which shall be supported by such calculations as are necessary to show how the estimate is arrived at and, if the Commissioner so requires, by copies of key plans showing all such reserves. Such estimate shall be determined by the Commissioner and the estimate as so determined by him shall, for the purposes of this Schedule, be the total potential future output of the source as at such date. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 4 of this Schedule, such annual revision shall not affect any assessment determined or any allowance made or presumed to have been made under this Schedule.

3.—(1) Where on the 1st of January, 1946, a person was carrying on a trade of mining, he shall be deemed to have incurred on the 1st day of January, 1946, expenditure (in this Schedule referred to as “ previous expenditure ”) of such amount as shall be determined by the Commissioner, having regard to the total expenditure in connection with the source which was incurred by such person before the 1st day of January, 1946, the total potential future output of the source as at that date, the total output of the source prior to that date, any deductions previously allowed under section 11 of the Law and any other relevant factors :

Provided that there shall be deducted from the previous expenditure as thus determined the amount of any sale, insurance, salvage or compensation moneys received or receivable in respect of any asset or assets or any part thereof which were sold, demolished or destroyed prior to the 1st day of January, 1946.

(2)—(a) Where, on or after the 1st day of January, 1946, a person carrying on a trade of mining incurs expenditure, there shall be deducted in computing his chargeable income—

(i) for the year of assessment immediately following the year in which such expenditure is incurred an allowance (in this Schedule referred to as "an initial allowance") equal to—

(a) one-fifth of any such expenditure incurred on the provision of plant and machinery ; and

(b) one-tenth of any other such expenditure ;

(ii) for each subsequent year of assessment, an allowance (in this Schedule referred to as "an annual allowance") equal to the amount which results from applying to the balance of such expenditure the fraction of which—

(a) the numerator represents the output from the source in question during the year immediately preceding the year of assessment ; and

(b) the denominator represents the sum of that output and the total potential future output of the source estimated at the end of that period, or the fraction one-twentieth, whichever is the greater.

(b) Where a person carrying on a trade of mining has incurred previous expenditure there shall be deducted in computing his chargeable income for the year of assessment 1947 and subsequent years of assessment an annual allowance in respect of such previous expenditure calculated as in paragraph (a) of this sub-paragraph.

Adjustment

4. Where the source ceases to be worked or, in the case of a source worked under a concession, the concession comes to an end, the person carrying on the trade may elect that the annual allowance, if any, for the year in which that event occurs and for each of the six previous years shall be computed as if the reference in paragraph 2 of this Schedule to the potential future output of the source were a reference to the actual output of the source between the end of the year and the happening of the said event, and the said allowances shall be computed accordingly, and, notwithstanding anything in the Law contained limiting the time for the making of assessments or the allowance of claims for repayment, all such repayments and additional assessments shall be made as are necessary to enable effect to be given to this paragraph of this Schedule :

Provided that where any person elects that annual allowances shall be computed in accordance with this paragraph then the provisions of paragraph 5 of this Schedule shall apply as regards any asset or assets representing expenditure in respect of which such allowances are computed irrespective of when the event or events referred to in such paragraph occur or to whether or not the trade is permanently discontinued.

(a) In ascertaining the chargeable income of a person who is required under sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph to render a balancing statement to the Commissioner a deduction (in this Schedule referred to as "a balancing deduction") shall be allowed or, as the case may be, an addition (in this Schedule referred to as "a balancing addition") shall be made and such balancing deduction or balancing addition shall be calculated by reference to the balancing statement rendered by the person in respect of the year immediately preceding the year of assessment as follows :—

- (a) the amount of a balancing deduction shall be the amount by which the amount of item (i) of the balancing statement exceeds the amount of item (ii) of such statement ; or
- (b) the amount of the balancing addition shall be the amount by which the amount of item (ii) of the balancing statement exceeds the amount of item (i) of such statement, except that in no case shall a balancing addition exceed the amount of item (iii) of the statement.

(3) The provisions of sub-section (6) of section 11 of the Law shall apply as regards any balancing statement made under this Schedule.

(4) The buyer of any such asset or assets shall, for the purposes of the provisions of this Schedule relating to annual allowances, balancing deductions and balancing additions be deemed to have incurred on the assets, at the time of the sale, expenditure to which this Schedule applies equal to whichever is the lesser of the following amounts, that is to say :—

- (i) so much of the price as is attributable to the assets ; and
- (ii) the balance of the expenditure incurred by the seller on the assets as at the date of the sale reduced by the amount of any balancing deduction or increased by the amount of any balancing addition made to the seller under this paragraph.

6. (1) Any expenditure incurred for the purpose of a trade of mining by a person about to carry it on shall be treated for the purposes of this Schedule as if it had been incurred by that person on the first day on which he does carry it on :

Provided that nothing in this paragraph contained shall authorise the making of an initial allowance in respect of any expenditure incurred before the 1st day of January, 1946.
