3. The Governor may, by order, declare any area or areas within the Colony to be a registration area for the purposes of these Regulations. Declaration of registration
areas.

4. Where an area has been declared a registration area, the Governor may, by the same or by a subsequent order, direct that all persons or any specified class of persons within that area or within any specified part thereof shall register with such authority as may be specified. Persons to be registered, etc.

5.—(1) Any person required to register as aforesaid shall, within such time or during such dates and at such place as the Registration Officer may direct, and any person who was not required to be registered at the date of such order by reason of being exempted under Regulation 23 and who has since ceased to be so exempted shall within one month of ceasing to be so exempted, report to the Registration Officer and— Registration of photographs, finger prints and particulars.

(a) deliver to the Registration Officer two small unmounted duplicate photographs of himself to the satisfaction of such Registration Officer ;

- (b) if the Registration Officer so directs, submit to all such steps as may be reasonably necessary for the taking of photographs of himself in accordance with such directions, for which photographs such charge may be made as the Registration Officer may direct ;
- (c) give the following particulars to the Registration Officer, namely—
 - (i) his name, or, if he is known by different names, each of such names, in full ;
 - (ii) the full address of his usual place of residence, and, if such place is not within the registration area, the full address of any temporary place of residence within the registration area ;
 - (iii) his religion ;
 - (iv) his place and date of birth ;
 - (v) his occupation, trade or employment ; and
 - (vi) such other particulars as the Registration Officer may in any particular case consider necessary for the purposes of identification ;
- (d) submit to all such steps as may be reasonably necessary for the taking and recording of his finger prints ;
- (e) take delivery in person of the identity card prepared for him at such time and at such place as the Registration Officer may direct.

(2) The Registration Officer may require any person giving the particulars referred to in paragraph (1) of this Regulation to produce such documentary or other evidence as the Registration Officer may consider necessary to support the accuracy of such particulars.

(3) If such person fails to produce such documentary or other evidence, the Registration Officer may charge a fee not exceeding one pound before recording the particulars specified in paragraph (1) of this Regulation and before delivering to such person an identity card as laid down in Regulation 6 of these Regulations.

Issue of identity
cards.

6. The authority recording the particulars specified in Regulation 5 of these Regulations shall deliver to the person giving the particulars an identity card containing a copy of such person's photograph, an impression of his finger prints and such other particulars as may be necessary for his identification.

Routes for entering or leaving registration
area.

7.—(1) Where an area has been declared a registration area the Commissioner of the District in which such registration area is situated may, by order, or by giving directions, designate the route or routes, whether the same be a road, waterway, harbour or airport, to be used by persons entering or leaving such registration area.

(2) Where any such order has been made or directions given any person entering or leaving or attempting to enter or leave such registration area by any route other than a route designated in the order or directions shall be guilty of an offence against these Regulations.

(3) For the purposes of these Regulations the term " road " includes any highway, and any public bridge, and any street, lane, footpath, footway, square, court or passage, whether a thoroughfare or not.

Restriction of entry in registration
area.

8. From and after a date to be specified by the Governor by a notice in the Gazette no person shall enter a registration area—

- (a) unless he is in possession of an identity card issued to him under the provisions of these Regulations ; or
- (b) unless he is authorised so to do by the Commissioner of any District in which part or all of the registration area is situated or by a police officer or by a member of Her Majesty's Forces.

Responsibility for custody of identity card.

9. The person to whom an identity card has been issued shall, subject to the provisions of these Regulations, be responsible for the safe custody thereof.

10.—(1) Any police officer, any person authorised for the purpose by the Commissioner of Police, or any member of Her Majesty's Forces, may at any time require any person required to be registered under these Regulations to produce his identity card for inspection, and, if such person refuses or fails to produce such card on demand or within such time as such police officer, authorised person or member of Her Majesty's Forces may allow, he shall be guilty of an offence against these Regulations.

Production
of identity
card.

(2) For the purposes of identification any such police officer or authorised person may at any time take the finger prints of any person required to be registered under these Regulations and any persons whose finger prints are required under this Regulation shall submit to all such steps as may be reasonably necessary for the taking thereof.

11. No person, except a Registration Officer, shall make any mark or entry upon, or erase, cancel or alter any mark or entry contained in, or otherwise deface, or destroy, an identity card, or transfer an identity card.

Alteration
of identity
card prohibited.

12.—(1) Where an identity card is lost, destroyed, mutilated or defaced so that the particulars or some of the particulars thereon are no longer decipherable, the person to whom the card relates shall forthwith notify the Police and make an application in writing to a Registration Officer, through the Police Station of the area in which he resides, for the issue to him of a new identity card and thereafter take such steps as may be necessary for obtaining a new card. If any person, after notifying the Police of the loss of his identity card, subsequently recovers possession of the same, he shall forthwith notify the Police of such recovery and, if he shall have applied for a new card, shall notify also the Registration Officer to whom he had applied. If any person recovers possession of his identity card at any time after a new card has been issued to him under this Regulation he shall forthwith surrender the card so recovered to the Registration Officer for cancellation.

Loss or destruction
of identity
card to be notified.

(2) A Registration Officer may, at his discretion—

(a) cause to be issued a new identity card in place of the one lost, destroyed or so mutilated or defaced as to be useless for purposes of identification ;

(b) charge a fee for the replacement or return of an identity card to be payable in such manner as he may direct ;

(c) direct that any information, which he may require before issuing a new identity card, be supported by a statutory declaration.

(3) The fee referred to in sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (2) of this Regulation shall—

(a) not exceed one pound, in the case of the first replacement of an identity card ;

(b) not exceed five pounds, in the case of the second replacement of such card ; and

(c) not exceed twenty pounds, in the case of the third or subsequent replacement of such card.

(4) When an identity card is defaced or damaged but the particulars thereon are still legible, the person to whom the card relates shall forthwith deliver it to a Registration Officer together with an application in writing for the issue to him of a new identity card ; a Registration Officer may at his discretion cause to be issued a new identity card in place of the one defaced or damaged and in issuing such card he may, at his discretion, charge a fee not exceeding 250 mils.

13. Any person who finds a lost identity card shall forthwith deliver it to the Police.

to police,

Return of identity card on death of holder.

14. Upon the death of a person to whom an identity card was issued, the person in possession of his identity card shall deliver it to the Police within six days after the date of the death.

Surrender of identity card
on leaving registration
area.

15. Every person who leaves a registration area for any period exceeding one month shall surrender his identity card to the nearest Police Station prior to his departure in return for a receipt.

Correction of particulars and change of residence.

16.—(1) A person who has in his possession an identity card containing any particulars which are to his knowledge incorrect or, makes any change in his permanent address, shall forthwith report the fact to the Registration Officer through the Police Station of the area in which he resides :

Provided that a report of change of permanent address shall not be required when a person becomes an inmate, for the purpose of detention therein, of any civil prison, lock-up or other place of detention.

(2) A Registration Officer or a police officer may, at his discretion, require a person in possession of an identity card which, in the opinion of such Registration Officer or police officer is in any way unsatisfactory for the purposes of identification of that person, to apply for the rectification of such card or to surrender such card and apply for the issue of a new identity card.

Hotels and lodging houses not to accommodate persons without identity
card.

17.—(1) No proprietor, manager or other person in charge of a hotel, boarding house or common lodging house in a registration area shall accommodate any person, unless he is in possession of an identity card, or a permit issued under paragraph (b) of Regulation 8, and produces such identity card or permit for inspection upon his arrival at such hotel, boarding house or common lodging house :

Provided that, if any person seeking accommodation—

(a) is a person exempted from registration under Regulation 23 of these Regulations ; or

(b) is a member of Her Majesty's Naval, Military or Air Forces, or of any local Forces, including the Cyprus Police Force, and is in actual possession of the official identity card or other document of identity normally issued to members of such Forces ;

such person may be granted accommodation without being in possession of or producing an identity card or permit.

(2) When any person seeks accommodation at any such hotel, boarding house, or common lodging house, not being a person to whom any proviso of paragraph (1) of this Regulation refers, and fails to produce an identity card or permit duly issued to him, it shall be the duty of the proprietor, manager or other person in charge of such hotel, boarding house or common lodging house to notify the Police at the nearest Police Station of such fact immediately.

Search.

18.—(1) Any police officer may without warrant and with or without assistance—

(a) enter and search any premises ;

(b) stop and search any vessel, vehicle or individual, whether in a public place or not,

if he suspects that any evidence of the commission of an offence against these Regulations is likely to be found on such premises or individual or in such vessel or vehicle, and may seize any evidence so found.

(2) No women shall be searched under this Regulation except by a woman.

No presumption of truth of contents of identity card.

19. The burden of proving the truth of the contents of an identity card shall lie on the person to whom such identity card has been issued.

20.—(1) Any person who—

- (a) being a person liable to registration under these Regulations fails to comply with any of the provisions of paragraph (1) of Regulation 5 of these Regulations ;
- (b) in giving the particulars required under Regulation 5 of these Regulations makes any statement or gives any information which is false or incorrect in any material particular ;
- (c) knowing that a person liable to registration under these Regulations is not so registered or is not in possession of an identity card harbours or assists such person ;
- (d) being a person who is not normally resident in the registration area obtains or attempts to obtain an identity card ;
- (e) being a parent or de facto guardian of a person under the age of sixteen years, conduces by neglect or otherwise, to the commission of an offence by such person against any of the provisions of these Regulations, other than an offence against any of the provisions of paragraph (2) of this Regulation ;
- (f) fails to comply with any provision of these Regulations or of any order, direction or requirement made thereunder ;
- (g) aids or abets the commission of an offence against any of the provisions of these Regulations, other than an offence against any of the provisions of paragraph (2) of this Regulation, shall be guilty of an offence against these Regulations.

(2) Any person who—

- (a) forges or reproduces an identity card or knowingly has in his possession an identity card containing any false entry, or unauthorised alteration or erasure, or a reproduction of an identity card ;
- (b) obtains or has possession of more than one identity card, unless he can show that he obtained or had possession of such card or cards innocently ;
- (c) uses as his own an identity card or other document issued under these Regulations to another person ;
- (d) unlawfully deprives any person of an identity card ;
- (e) aids or abets the commission of an offence against any of the provisions of this paragraph,

THE EMERGENCY POWERS ORDERS IN COUNCIL, 1939 AND 1952.

REGULATIONS MADE BY THE GOVERNOR UNDER SECTION 6.

JOHN HARDING,
Governor.

In exercise of the powers conferred on me by section 6 of the Emergency Powers Orders in Council, 1939 and 1952, I, the Governor, do hereby make the following Regulations :—

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Emergency Powers (Modification No. 1 of the Civil Procedure Rules) Regulations, 1956. S.L. Vol. II.
p. 124.
2. Notwithstanding anything in Order 44 of the Civil Procedure Rules to the contrary contained, where a Bailiff is unable for any reason to obtain the assistance of the Mukhtar or a member of the Village Commission of the village in which execution is to be effected, he may, subject to any directions, general or special, of the Sheriff or Deputy Sheriff, obtain, instead, the assistance of any other suitable person or Government officer ; or dispense with any assistance, should the Bailiff consider such course necessary or desirable, and do in person all things required of the Mukhtars or members of the Village Commissions as provided in Order 44 of the Civil Procedure Rules. S.L. Vol. II.

Made at Nicosia, this 19th day of May, 1956.

(M.P. 23/DXXVI/54.)

REGULATIONS MADE UNDER SECTION 5.

■ In exercise of the powers vested in him by section 5 of the Lotteries Law, 1956, His Excellency the Governor has been pleased to make the following regulations :—

Short title.

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Government Lotteries Regulations, 1956.

Government Lottery Committee.

2. The Governor may appoint a committee, to be called the Government Lottery Committee, consisting of a chairman and not fewer than six other members, who shall advise and assist the Director of Lotteries in the promotion and conduct of lotteries and exercise and perform the powers and duties conferred and imposed upon them by these Regulations.

Ordinary lotteries.

3.—(1) Subject to the provisions of regulation 4 of these Regulations, one lottery shall be held in every month, commencing on a date to be fixed by the Director of Lotteries and such lotteries (hereinafter in these Regulations called "ordinary lotteries") shall be drawn on the first Saturday of the month :

Provided that—

(a) if the Director of Lotteries deems it expedient that an ordinary lottery should be drawn on a day other than the first Saturday of the month, he may direct that it shall be drawn on such other day of the same month as he shall specify ;

(b) if it appears to the Director of Lotteries that an ordinary lottery in respect of which he shall not have issued any tickets cannot conveniently be held in the month in which under this regulation it is due to be held he may, by notice in the Gazette, direct that such lottery shall not be held.

(2) The price of a ticket issued for sale in respect of an ordinary lottery shall be such sum, not exceeding £1, as the Director of Lotteries may direct.

Special lotteries.

4.—(1) In addition to ordinary lotteries, or in substitution for any such lottery, there may, if the Director of Lotteries thinks fit, be held other lotteries (hereinafter in these Regulations called "special lotteries") not exceeding four in any one year, and every such lottery shall be drawn on such day as the Director of Lotteries may direct.

(2) The price of a ticket issued for sale in respect of a special lottery shall be such sum, not exceeding £5, as the Director of Lotteries may direct.

Notice of draw.

5. Before any lottery is drawn the Director of Lotteries shall cause to be published in the Gazette and also, if he thinks fit, in any other convenient manner—

(a) the date and time when and the place where the draw will take place ;

(b) the number of tickets issued by him for sale in respect of the lottery, their price and any other particulars concerning them which he may deem it desirable to publish ;

(c) the number and value of the prizes apportioned to the lottery and the place where and the hours during which payment of prizes may be claimed.

Particulars to be stated in tickets.

6. The following particulars shall be set forth on every ticket—

(a) the date and number or other description of the draw of the lottery for which the ticket is issued ;

(b) the number and price of the ticket ;

- (c) the number and value of the prizes apportioned to the lottery for which the ticket is issued ;
- (d) the total number of tickets issued in respect of that lottery, and such other particulars, if any, as the Director of Lotteries may direct.

7.—(1) Whenever any lottery is drawn there shall be present at the draw at least three members of the Government Lottery Committee, and if, at the time appointed for the draw, there shall not be that number of members present, the draw shall be postponed until such time, whether on the same or on another day, as the Director of Lotteries or any person then present who has been authorized for that purpose by the Director of Lotteries, may direct.

Procedure
at draw.

(2) The members of the Government Lottery Committee present at a draw shall, before the commencement of the draw, appoint one of their number to preside at the draw, and the member so appointed shall—

- (a) put, or cause to be put, in motion the machine or other contrivance approved by the Director of Lotteries for drawing the number of the winning tickets ;
- (b) declare the numbers of the winning tickets so drawn, and in the event of the same number being drawn more than once at a draw declare the second or subsequent number null and void ;
- (c) in the event of any breakdown or other difficulty occurring in the operation of the machine or contrivance aforesaid, direct that the drawing of the numbers of such winning tickets as then remain to be drawn shall be postponed until such time as he is satisfied that the draw can be resumed without difficulty.

(3) If, at the time when a draw is postponed under the provisions of subparagraph (c) of paragraph (2) of this regulation, one or more, but not all, of the digits necessary to determine the number of a winning ticket shall have been drawn, the number of that ticket shall, when the draw is resumed, be drawn afresh as to all its digits, and the digit or digits drawn before the postponement of the draw shall be disregarded.

(4) The public shall be admitted to the premises upon which the draw of a lottery is conducted so far as may reasonably be practicable having regard to the accommodation available for such purpose.

(5) Any person who obstructs or impedes the drawing of a lottery, or creates any disturbance on or near the premises on which a lottery is being or is about to be drawn, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding ten pounds.

8. The Director of Lotteries shall cause the numbers of the winning tickets drawn in every lottery to be published in the Gazette as soon as he can conveniently do so after the lottery has been drawn.

Result of draw to be published.

9. Prizes shall be paid by the Director of Lotteries in respect of winning tickets in a lottery in accordance with the following provisions—

Payment of prizes.

- (a) payment shall be claimed by presenting and delivering up the ticket in respect of which the claim is made at the place and during the hours appointed for the purpose in the notice published in pursuance of Regulation 5 of these Regulations ;
- (b) payment shall be claimed within six months after the day of the draw at which the ticket in respect of which the claim is made was declared a winning ticket ;
- (c) no payment shall be made before the day next following that of the draw at which the ticket was declared a winning ticket or, if that day is a Sunday or public holiday, before the next following day not being a Sunday or public holiday ;

- (d) payment shall be made to the person who presents the ticket for payment of the prize won by that ticket and such payment shall absolutely discharge the Director of Lotteries, the Government, its servants and agents in respect of the payment of that prize.

Forfeiture of unclaimed prize.

10. If payment of a prize is not claimed in the manner and within the period prescribed by Regulation 9 of these Regulations, and if the number of the ticket in respect of which the prize was payable shall have been duly published as provided in Regulation 8 of these Regulations, the proceeds of that prize shall upon the expiry of the period aforesaid be forfeited to Her Majesty and paid into the Development Funds of the Colony.

Defaced, etc.,
tickets.

11. If, when any ticket is presented for payment of a prize any number, mark, figure or word which is material for identifying the ticket is, in the opinion of the Director of Lotteries, illegible or not clearly legible or incomplete or has been obliterated, defaced or removed, he shall not make any payment unless the person claiming payment produces evidence, to the satisfaction of the Director of Lotteries, identifying the ticket as the ticket in respect of which the prize claimed is payable.

Agent for sale of
tickets.

12.—(1) The Director of Lotteries may appoint one or more agents for the sale of tickets to the public and may fix their remuneration. Every such appointment shall be for a period of three months from the date on which the appointment takes effect, but may be renewed for a further period, or further successive periods, not exceeding three months if the Director of Lotteries shall think fit.

(2) The agent shall, upon his appointment as an agent, give and execute a bond, in the form set out in the Schedule to these Regulations, with two sureties to be approved by the Director of Lotteries, in a sum equal to twice the face value of the tickets allotted to him.

(3) The agent may appoint sub-agents for the sale of tickets allotted to the agent, but every such appointment shall forthwith be notified to the Director of Lotteries.

Street vendors.

13.—(1) The Director of Lotteries may on payment of an annual fee of fifty mils, grant licences, revocable at any time without cause shown, to such persons and on such terms and conditions as he thinks fit, permitting the licensees to act as vendors.

(2) In this regulation the term " vendor " means any person who hawks, peddles, sells or offers for sale Government lottery tickets in any public place in Cyprus.

Offences.

14.—(1) Any person who—

(a) buys or sells any Government lottery ticket or share thereof at a price exceeding the price authorised by the Director of Lotteries ;
or

(b) sells or offers for sale in any public place any such ticket or share without the permission of the Director of Lotteries, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds and, if the person convicted is an agent appointed under Regulation 12 of these Regulations or the sub-agent of such agent, the Director of Lotteries may forthwith revoke the appointment of the agent.

(2) If any person, being an agent appointed under Regulation 12 of these Regulations or the sub-agent of such agent, or the servant of either, buys, receives, takes or accepts from any person any such ticket as aforesaid such ticket, being a ticket which has been declared to be a winning ticket under these Regulations, otherwise than in consideration of a cash payment equal to the full amount of the prize payable by the Director of Lotteries in respect of such ticket, as the case may be, he shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds, and the Director of Lotteries may forthwith revoke the appointment of the agent.
