9.—(1) Except where these Rules otherwise provide, any application for directions of an interlocutory nature in connection with any proceedings shall be made to the President or a member of the Compensation Assessment Tribunal nominated by him.

(3) When two or more references are pending before the Tribunal whether by the same or different claimants against the same Acquiring Authority, and the subjects of such reference involve a common question of law or fact of such importance in proportion to the rest of the matters involved in such references as to render it desirable that the references should be consolidated, the President or the Tribunal may, on the application of any interested party, or of his or its own motion, make an order that the references shall be heard together.

(4) An order for consolidation may be made with respect to some only of the matters to which the notices of reference relate.

11.—(1) Where two or more persons are interested in respect of the same land, the President may, if it appears to him that the contentions put forward by any two or more claimants are substantially the same, direct that one of those claimants shall alone be entitled to appear at the hearing of the reference, and may require the claimants concerned, within such period as he may allow, to select, or, failing their selection within the period allowed, may himself select, one of their number to represent them jointly in the conduct of the reference :

13.—(1) At the hearing the party claiming compensation shall begin and the other parties shall be heard in such order as the Tribunal may determine.

Procedure at hearing.

(2) Subject to the provisions of these Rules and to any direction given by the President, the procedure at the hearing of any proceedings shall be such as the Tribunal may direct.

14. Default of appearance.

15. On the hearing of an appeal or application against a determination or assessment the appellant or applicant shall not be entitled to rely upon any grounds not stated in his notice of reference or statement of case or application unless the President or the Tribunal thinks it just in all the circumstances, and on such terms as to costs or adjournment or otherwise as he or it may think fit, to allow such additional grounds to be put forward as may appear to the President or the Tribunal to be material.

Appellant limited to grounds of appeal.

16.—(1) Evidence before a Tribunal may be given orally or, if the parties to the proceedings consent or the President or the Tribunal so orders, by affidavit, but the Tribunal may at any stage of the proceedings make an order requiring the personal attendance of any deponent for examination and cross-examination.

22. If it appears to the Tribunal that any party to proceedings before the Tribunal has failed to send a copy of any document required under these Rules to be sent to any other party or to the registrar, the Tribunal may direct that a copy of the document shall be sent as may be necessary and that the further hearing of the proceedings be adjourned, and may in any such case require the party at fault to pay any additional costs occasioned thereby.

23.—(1) A party to any proceedings before the Tribunal shall be entitled to apply to the Lands Officer in charge of the District within which the land, which is the subject of the proceedings, is situate for information concerning sales, registered at the Land Registry Office concerned, of comparable property in the neighbourhood of such land, and such information (including full particulars of property and sale price) shall be given to the party applying, within 10 days from the date of the application, or within such longer period as may be approved by the President.

The Chief Registrar shall serve on each party a copy of the case, and shall give the parties not less than 14 days' notice of the date fixed for the hearing of such case before the Supreme Court.
