AN ORDINANCE

TO ASSIST IN THE ENFORCEMENT IN THE SOVEREIGN BASE AREAS OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE CHILD ALLOWANCE LAW OF THE REPUBLIC OF CYPRUS.

J P W FRIEDBERGER

16th May, 1988.

ADMINISTRATOR

BE it enacted by the Administrator of the Sovereign Base Areas of Akrotiri and Dhekelia as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Republican Child Allowance Law (Relevant Provisions) (Enforcement) Ordinance, 1988.

Interpretation.

2. In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires:—

Ordinance
6 of 1960.

“Cypriot” has, subject to the provisions of Section 3 of this Ordinance, the same meaning as in the Citizens of the Republic (Jurisdiction of Courts) Ordinance, 1960;

“entitled person” means any person whatever his or her personal status who is a parent or is in charge, of at least four dependent children as defined in the Republican Law;

“Registrar” means a Senior Registrar or Registrar of either Court of the Sovereign Base Areas;

Law 314/87
(Cyprus).

“Republican law” means the Child Allowance Law of the Republic.

Recognition in the Areas of civil proceedings to enforce Republican Law.

3. Any civil proceedings against any entitled person being a Cypriot to compel such entitled person to return to any Authority of the Republic, money which it is alleged such person has received from the Revenue of the Republic or any Authority operating under any legislation of the Republic, (being money to which he is not entitled but which it is alleged has been paid to him in good faith under the provisions of the Republican law) shall be treated as if such proceedings are recognised proceedings for the purposes of Part III of the Citizens of the Republic (Jurisdiction of Courts) Ordinance, 1960 and the plaintiff whether an individual person or not, if purporting to be an Authority of the Republic, shall be treated for such purposes as a Cypriot.

Ordinance
6 of 1960.

Benefit payable under Republican Law
to be exempt from Income Tax.

4. Any benefit lawfully payable under the Republican law to an entitled person, shall be exempt from any legislation of the Areas relating to income tax to the like extent as it is exempt under the provisions of the Republican law from similar legislation of the Republic.

5.—(1) Any person who within or from the Areas for the purpose of securing a benefit for either himself or another person for any reason relating to the Republican law :—

Penal provisions.

- (a) intentionally or by reason of negligence or carelessness makes a false report or false representation ; or
- (b) presents, furnishes, causes or allows the presentation or supply of documents or information directly or indirectly to any Authority of the Republic knowing the said documents or information to be false, shall be guilty of an offence punishable on conviction by a fine not exceeding one thousand pounds or by imprisonment not exceeding two years or by both such imprisonment and fine.

(2) No prosecutions shall be instituted under the provisions of this Section without the written approval of the Legal Adviser.

(3) In any proceedings under the provisions of this Section, the Court may take judicial notice of the Republican law and of any English translation thereof or any part thereof stated in Court or certified as being accurate by a Registrar.

16th May, 1988.

D.K.A. REYNOLDS,
Chief Officer.
