EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note does not form part of the Ordinance)

1. This note relates to the Annual Holidays with Pay (Amendment) Ordinance 2010 “the Ordinance”. The note has been prepared by the office of the Attorney General and Legal Adviser in order to assist the reader of the Ordinance. It does not form part of the Ordinance.
2. The Ordinance amends the Annual Holidays with Pay Ordinance 1973 by enabling a personal representative of a deceased person to claim his or her holiday pay. It also enables a person to claim holiday pay on behalf of a person who is unable to claim holiday pay in person. Previously, the holiday pay could only be claimed by another if the employee was deceased, and then only by the widow or widower of the deceased.
3. In accordance with modern drafting practice, the 1973 Ordinance has been amended so that the delegation to officers of the Republic under the Delegation of Functions to the Republic Ordinance 2007 appears on the face of the 1973 Ordinance.
4. The Ordinance also amends the 1973 Ordinance to provide that it does not apply to the Crown in relation to any of its employees, or to authorised service organisations in relation to its UK-based civilian employees.
