THE LAND ACQUISITION ORDINANCE

(Cap. 226 — Laws of Cyprus — and Ordinances 12 of 1963,
9 of 1964, 1 of 1986, 4 of 1987 and 19 of 1988).

NOTIFICATION UNDER SECTION 7.

Whereas by Public Instrument No. 66 published in Supplement No. 3 to the Gazette No. 946 of the 11th November, 1991 the Administrator declared the construction of a Desalination Plant in the Dhekelia Sovereign Base Area to be an undertaking of public utility ;

And whereas the Area Officer, Dhekelia, in compliance with subsection (1) of Section 6 of the Land Acquisition Ordinance and by Public Instrument No. 73 of 1991 gave particulars of the land to be acquired in connection with the said undertaking of public utility (hereinafter referred to as “the land”);

And whereas the Area Officer, Dhekelia, in compliance with subsection (2) of the said Section, forwarded to the Administrator the required recommendations, plan and particulars ;

And whereas the Administrator has approved the plan and particulars submitted and has considered it expedient, having regard to the circumstances of the case, that the land be acquired ;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers vested in him by Section 7 of the Land Acquisition Ordinance, the Administrator hereby sanctions the acquisition of the land under the provisions of the said Ordinance.

Dated this 15th day of January, 1992.

By the Administrator's Command,
A.J.H. ADAMS,
Chief Officer,

- (e) transport,

for human consumption within the village boundaries, water deriving from any boring, spring or well without first obtaining from the Republican Government Laboratory a certificate confirming that the water is hygienic and suitable for human consumption.

(4) The Commission shall have power, on issuing the permit referred to in subsection (1) of this Rule, to impose conditions in relation to—

- (a) the sanitary construction, maintenance, supervision, cleaning and servicing of the water-cart or any water waggon or container in which the water is transported;

- (b) the advance securing of a health certificate from the Chief Officer by any person who sells, displays for sale, transports or supplies water intended for human consumption;
- (c) the period of validity of such permit; and
- (d) the payment by the person to whom such permit is issued, of a fee not exceeding twenty four pounds (£24) per annum or part thereof.

(5) The Chief Officer or the Chairman of the Commission or any other person appointed by either of them, shall at any reasonable time—

- (a) check any vehicle by which water intended for human consumption is transported (whether in a barrel adjusted to the vehicle or in bottles or containers); and
- (b) enter and inspect any immovable property in order to verify that the provisions of this Rule are observed.

(6) The Chief Officer or the Chairman of the Commission or any other person appointed by either of them in that behalf, shall have power to seize water intended for human consumption where the provisions of this Rule are not observed and to render useless the said water in the most suitable way, so that it cannot possibly be used for human consumption.

CHAPTER 3 – Household Refuse.

Owner to provide himself with refuse container.

10.—(1) Every owner or lessee or occupier of any premises within the area of the village shall provide himself with a suitable sanitary receptacle for containing household refuse.

(2) Every sanitary receptacle shall have a closely fitting cover and shall be kept covered except when opened for loading or unloading.

Refuse to be placed in sanitary receptacles.

11. No owner or occupier of any premises within the area of the village shall deposit or permit or allow or suffer to be deposited household refuse on such premises except in a sanitary receptacle.

Time and intervals for removal of refuse.

12.—(1) All household refuse shall be removed from all such premises by the occupiers thereof, between such hours and at such intervals as the Commission may by public notification from time to time determine or by persons appointed from time to time for this purpose by the Commission.

(2) All such refuse may be deposited or thrown or left at such places within or outside the area of the village as the Commission may by public notification from time to time determine.

Fees payable for transportation of refuse.

13.—(1) The following fee shall be paid by the owner or occupier of any premises for the removal by persons appointed by the Commission, of buckets or receptacles containing household refuse within the area of the village, that is to say—

For every premises £15 per annum or part thereof.

(2) Every such fee shall be paid to the person authorised by the Commission in that behalf.

CHAPTER 4. – Prevention of Mosquito Breeding.

14. Every proprietor, tenant or occupier of any premises situated within the village territory, must –

Measures to be taken for inhibiting mosquito breeding.

- (a) clear such property of all swamps, marshes, drains, pits and holes where mosquitoes may be produced or multiplied;
- (b) not leave in such property any broken or empty bottles, jars, cans, containers, barrels or other receptacles in such a manner that they would hold water which might stagnate and create a mosquito breeding place;
- (c) not contribute to or permit the formation of stagnant waters in such property whereby the reproduction of mosquitoes is permitted;
- (d) not permit the existence in such property of hollow trees or other parts where water may accumulate whereby mosquitoes may be produced and multiplied;
- (e) not contribute to or permit the existence of bottles or fragments thereof, wedged in the walls or any other part of such property unless these are so placed or supported that they cannot hold water when it rains.

CHAPTER 5. – Coffee-Houses, etc.

15. Every owner or lessee or occupier of any coffee-house within the area of the village shall, to the satisfaction of the Commission or their representative and of the Chief Officer –

Maintenance of cleanliness on coffee-house premises.

- (b) collect any accumulation of dung, litter, filth or other offensive or noxious matter in a special place in such coffee-house, separated and fenced round for this purpose;
- (c) remove at his own expense from such coffee-house all such dung, litter, filth or other offensive or noxious matter every day;
- (d) disinfect all places in such coffee-house infected by dung, litter, filth or other offensive or noxious matter by covering or spreading over all such places lime every day.

16. Every owner or lessee or occupier of any premises within the area of the village used as a restaurant, tavern, coffee-house, confectionery, pastry-shop, bakery, butcher's shop, public bath shall, to the satisfaction of the Commission or their representative and of the Chief Officer –

- (a) keep all such premises in a thoroughly clean and sanitary condition; and
- (b) keep all appliances and utensils therein used for the purpose of such premises, in a thoroughly clean and sanitary condition.

CHAPTER 6. – Powers of Inspection.

Officials authorised to enter and inspect premises.

17.–(1) The Chief Officer and the Chairman of the Commission or any person appointed by him in that behalf, shall enter and inspect at any reasonable time any premises referred to specifically or generally in this Part of these Rules, for the purpose of ensuring that the provisions stipulated therein are being observed.

(2) The Chief Officer or the Chairman of the Commission shall serve or arrange for the serving of a notice in writing, on any person who operates in contravention of this Part of these Rules, advising him to conform with them and to do within a prescribed period of time all that he failed or omitted to have done under this Part of these Rules:

Provided that such written notice shall not absolve any such person from suffering the consequences of the contravention of this Part of these Rules, committed prior to serving him with the notice.

CHAPTER 7. – Application.

Exemption of Crown property.

17A. Nothing in this part of these Rules shall affect any person residing at or in any premises situated at any place within the village boundaries owned or occupied by the Crown in right of the Government of the United Kingdom.

PART V – STREETS

- (c) erect or cause to erect any barricade or barrier of any kind on any street;
- (d) dig or sink any water channel, well, hole, pit or shaft across or upon any street;
- (e) place or deposit any timber, stone, manure, lime, soil, ashes, rubbish or any other matter or thing upon any street; or
- (f) expose for sale in a stationary manner any goods upon any street, within the area of the village.

PART VI – ANNUAL RATES

20. The Commission shall charge every occupier in the village, an annual rate not exceeding £100.00 assessed in relation to the financial condition of such occupier, taking into account his property and other resources within the village. Assessment of rates.
21. On or before 31 March every year, the Commission shall compile a list (hereinafter referred to in this part of these Rules as the "Occupiers List") which shall indicate the name, profession and address of each occupier and the annual rate that will be charged in respect of that occupier. The Occupiers' List shall bear the appropriate date and signature of the Chairman of the Commission. Compilation of List.
22. Copies of the Occupiers' List, certified by virtue of the Chairman's signature, appropriately dated, shall be posted by the Chairman of the Commission in two conspicuous places in the village. Lists to be posted up.
- 23.-(1) If an occupier whose name appears in the Occupiers' List considers himself overtaxed, he may, within ten days from the date the Register was posted, make an appeal to the Area Officer. Appeal against assessment.
- (2) Every such appeal must be in writing, must be signed by the appellant and must explain the grounds on which it is based.
24. The Area Officer must, as soon as possible, proceed to enquire into every appeal and the decision made by the Area Officer shall be final and irrevocable. Such decision shall be notified to the appellant as well as to the Commission so that if necessary, the List may be amended according to the aforesaid decision. Area Officer to examine appeal.
25. Every occupier in the village whose name appears in the said List must, not later than the 15th October in any year, pay to the Chairman of the Commission or any person appointed as a treasurer by the Area Officer, the annual rate which he was charged for the particular year. Payment of annual rates.
26. The Area Officer may, either following an application addressed to him or on his own initiative, exercise his discretion and, on the grounds of property, may waive the annual rate imposed on any occupier appearing in the List. Area Officer may waive annual rate.
27. In this Part of these Rules the word "occupier" means – Definition.
- (a) any person in actual occupation of any premises in the village without regard to the title under which he occupies such property or, in the case of unoccupied premises, the person entitled to its occupation;
- (b) the owner of any premises in the village.
- 27A. Nothing in this part of these Rules shall affect any person residing at any place within the village boundaries owned or occupied by the Crown in right of the Government of the United Kingdom. Exemption of Crown property.

PART VII – TAXES PAYABLE FOR CONDUCTING
