THE POLICE ORDINANCE
(Ordinances 9 of 1967, 14 of 1969 and 7 of 1975)

RULES MADE UNDER SECTION 38 (4)

Ordinances 11/71,
7/75 and 2/85

In exercise of the powers vested in him by Section 38 (4) of the Police Ordinance 1967 and by the same Section as modified by the Third Schedule to the Prisons Ordinance, 1971 the Administrator hereby makes the following Rules:-

1. These Rules may be cited as the Sovereign Base Areas Police and Prison Officers Association Rules, 1992.

2. The Sovereign Base Areas Police and Prison Officers' Association (in these Rules referred to as "the Association") shall consist of all Police Officers of the Force below the rank of Superintendent and all Prison Officers and the Association shall act through the Committees as hereinafter provided.

3. (1) Separate general meetings of the Constables, Sergeants and Inspectors (including Chief Inspectors) in each Area and of the Prison Officers, to be known as the Annual General Meetings, may be held each year in June on dates to be fixed by the Chief Police Officer.

(2) Extraordinary General Meetings shall be held on the direction of the Chief Police Officer on dates to be specified, or may be held with the consent of the Chief Police Officer at the request of a Committee or of one half of the number of Constables or Sergeants in an Area or of the Prison Officers:

Provided that at an Extraordinary General Meeting only such matters as shall be specified in the agenda shall be discussed.

(3) Two Extraordinary General Meetings will be held each year as a permanent commitment whereby the Chief Police Officer and the Chief Officer Sovereign Base Areas Administration (or his nominee) shall attend to take agenda items.

4. There shall be constituted three Committees, one for Constables and Prison Officers, one for Sergeants and the Prison Sergeant and one for Inspectors, to be called the "Constables' Committee" the "Sergeants' Committee" and the "Inspectors' Committee" respectively.

5. (1) The Constables' Committee shall consist of two Constables for each Area, and shall include representatives of both Cypriot communities, as appropriate, elected by the Police Constables and Prison Officers belonging to that Area and will also include one Woman Police Constable who will be elected by and represent all Women Police Constables of the Force.

(2) The Sergeants' Committee shall consist of three Sergeants. One from the Western Area and two from the Eastern Area and shall include representatives of both Cypriot communities and will be elected by the Police Sergeants belonging to that Area and a Prison Sergeant appointed for Prison duties who shall be ex officio a member of the Sergeants' Committee.

(3) The Inspectors' Committee shall consist of two Inspectors one from each Area elected by the Inspectors (including Chief Inspectors) belonging to that Area.

(4) There will be no Superintendents' Committee as they may represent themselves through the COPASS (Chief of Police and Senior Staff) meetings.

6. All Inspectors, Sergeants and Constables (other than the Prison Sergeant) in each Area and all Prison Officers shall have the right to vote at an election of the Area on the Committee for their respective ranks.

7. The elections shall take place biennially in June on a day fixed by the Chief Police Officer and the annual meetings of all Committees shall be held not later than the 14th day of July each year on a day fixed by the Chief Police Officer.

8. The three Committees, or any two of them, may by agreement sit together as one Committee to be known as the "Joint Committee" for any special purpose or regularly for all purposes of common interest.

9. (1) A Committee, or the Joint Committee, may submit representations in writing to the Chief Police Officer or to the Administrator through the Chief Police Officer.

(2) A Committee, or the Joint Committee, shall consider and report upon any matter referred to it by the Chief Police Officer.

10. A Committee, or the Joint Committee, in addition to submitting any representation to the Chief Police Officer or to the Administrator may submit it also to the Secretary of State through the normal channels.

11. At any election conducted under these Rules the Deputy Chief Police Officer of the Area shall supervise the election and shall appoint two members of the rank in respect of which the election is held or two Prison Officers as the case may be to assist them in counting the votes and after all votes have been counted shall announce the names of those elected. In the event of any objection being raised as to the conduct of the election the Deputy Chief Police Officer may, if he is satisfied that the objection is valid, declare the election void and order a new election. The decision of the Deputy Chief Police Officer in this matter shall be final.

12. All candidates in any election shall signify to the Deputy Chief Police Officer before the election that they are willing to stand and their names shall then be placed on the ballot papers.

Each elector shall then be given one ballot paper and no more on which he shall signify with an "X" the name or names of the candidates whom he wishes to elect up to the number provided for each Area and the Prison Officers in Rule 5. Any ballot paper which contains any other marks shall be invalid and shall be destroyed at the count. All elections shall be by secret ballot.

13. Any Constable, Prison Officer or Sergeant who is unable to be present at an election on account of sickness or absence from the Island of Cyprus on duty or leave may cause to be given to the Deputy Chief Police Officer of the Area in a closed envelope, on or before the date of the election, the names of those whom he wishes to elect and, provided such names are included in the list of candidates on the ballot papers, the Deputy Chief Police Officer shall cause them to be counted in the ballot. Any such names not included in the list of candidates shall be erased by the Deputy Chief Police Officer at the count.

14. Subject to the provisions of these Rules the Constables' Committee, the Sergeants' Committee and the Inspectors' Committee may make regulations as to the mode of election of the members of the Committee and as to the filling of casual vacancies among such members:

Provided that when the membership of a Committee or the Joint Committee falls below half its full membership the Chief Police Officer shall have the power to order new elections.

15. Each Committee and Joint Committee shall choose its Chairman and Secretary from among its members.

16. Subject to the provisions of these Rules every Committee or Joint Committee may regulate its own procedure including the appointment of Sub-Committees.

17. The Chairman at any meeting of the Committee or the Joint Committee at which he is present shall have a second or casting vote.

18. Committees may hold four quarterly meetings (including the Annual Meeting) at such place as may be convenient, but additional meetings for any special purpose may be held with the consent of the Chief Police Officer:

Provided that the members of the Inspectors', Sergeants' and Constables' Committees for either Area may meet from time to time with the approval of the Chief Police Officer:

- (a) to discuss any matter which is within the powers given to them by these Rules and the Ordinance; and
- (b) under the chairmanship of the Deputy Chief Police Officer to discuss and make recommendations affecting welfare and sport within such Area and may, for this purpose, co-opt not more than two members of the Force or Prison Officers from the same Area.

19. (1) The Association may raise funds by subscriptions among its members, and may collect subscriptions from its members to meet its expenses. Donations shall be accepted only from members of the Association.

(2) The rate of the subscription payable by the members shall be decided at the Annual General Meeting.

(3) The Committee shall keep detailed accounts of any subscriptions or donations paid to it and shall have these audited by an independent auditor. An annual statement of account shall be available at the Annual General Meeting. The Administrator or the Chief Police Officer may at any time ask for a copy of such statements of account or for any books kept in connection with the affairs of the Association.

(4) The funds of the Association shall not be used for contributing directly or indirectly to -

- (a) the funds of a trade union;
- (b) the funds of a political party;
- (c) the election expenses of a candidate for any election outside the Force or Service;
- (d) the funds of any body or organization outside the Force or Service;
- (e) benevolent or charitable expenses except with the express approval of the Administrator;
- (f) defray any expenses incurred by or on behalf of any member of the Force or Service in respect of any criminal or disciplinary proceedings against him.

(5) The funds of the Association may be used:-

- (a) to pay expenses incurred in connection with meetings of the Association;
- (b) to pay expenses incurred by representatives in attending meetings of an Association Committee which are not chargeable to public funds;
- (c) for such other purpose as the Chief Police Officer may approve.

20. Except where, in special circumstances, a Police or Prison Officer is required for duty for which no substitute is available, leave shall be given for attendance at meetings of the Association and its Committees, and every such attendance as regards allowance and expenses, shall be deemed to be an occasion of police or prison duty.

21. Meetings of the Association or any of its Committees shall not be open to members of the public or to the press.

22. The Sovereign Base Areas Police Association Rules, 1972 are hereby revoked without prejudice to anything done or left undone thereunder.
