5. No person may sell, dispatch or supply any agricultural product in the Areas, unless the box, container or other similar article in which such product has been packed, is accompanied by the producer's declaration in the form prescribed in the Schedule to these regulations.

Schedule

Safety Period.

6. (1) Every producer shall, before harvesting, observe the safety period provided for the specific pesticide which has been used.

(2) Where the safety period has not been observed, the agricultural product which has been harvested shall, for the purposes of these Regulations, be deemed to be injurious to health and shall be detained until the final results of the laboratory tests are received, whereupon such agricultural product shall either be destroyed or released.

Sample testing for the presence of pesticides

7. Every officer authorised by the Chief Officer to control food hygiene in the Areas may at any appropriate time, enter any property, farm or greenhouse where pesticides are used and he may, in the presence of the producer or his representative, take samples of the agricultural produce which has been harvested or packed and is intended for sale and may detain any suspicious or injurious to health agricultural products and may destroy these where the laboratory tests have proved that the residues of any pesticide exceed the prescribed limits or may act according to the circumstances of each case.

Prerequisites for importing agricultural products.

8. No person may import into the Areas any agricultural product unless this is accompanied by a certificate issued by the competent Authority of the sending country, indicating that this complies with the provisions of these Regulations.

1. These Rules may be cited as the Civil Procedure (Amendment) Rules, 1995 and shall be read as one with the Civil Procedure Rules as amended from time to time.

2. Rule 4 of Order 35 is hereby amended by adding after the word "stated", in the sixth line, the following:-

"Every reason for an appeal shall be set forth in a separate paragraph. After every ground of an appeal the reasons relied upon shall be set forth separately."

3. Order 64 is hereby repealed and replaced by the following:-

"ORDER 64

EFFECT OF NON-COMPLIANCE

1.-(1) Non-compliance, due to any action or omission, with the provisions of these Rules, in relation to time, place, manner, form, content or anything else upon the commencement or the presumed commencement of any proceedings, or at any stage in any proceedings, or relating to such proceedings, shall be presumed to be an irregularity and shall not render the proceedings, or any step in the proceedings, or any document, judgement or order made in the proceedings, void.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), the Court may, when it finds such non-compliance with the Rules, as is provided in paragraph (1), and subject to such conditions as to costs or otherwise, as it considers fit, set aside wholly or in part the proceedings in which such non-compliance occurred, or any step that was taken in the proceedings, or any document, judgement or order made in the proceedings, or in exercising the powers conferred upon it by these Rules, allow such amendments, if required, and issue such order, if required, relating to the procedure generally, as it may consider appropriate.

(3) The Court shall not set aside wholly any proceeding, or the Summons, or other originating process with which the proceedings were commenced, on the ground that a different originating process was used to commence the proceedings other than that required by these Rules.

2. An application to set aside any proceeding, or step which was taken in any proceeding, or any document, judgement or order made in the proceeding, for non-compliance, shall not be allowed, unless it is filed within a reasonable time and before the party who files the application takes any fresh step, since the irregularity came to his knowledge. The alleged grounds for setting aside any proceedings under this Order, shall be specified in the application.”.
